

You're Invited to Join Us In Honor of

National Crime Victims Rights Week

for an educational event focusing on Crime Victims rights. The evening is sponsored by Community Works, the Children's Advocacy Center of Jackson County, and the Jackson County District Attorney.

Where: Jackson County Library in Medford

When: Thursday, April 11th, 2019 | 5:30 - 7:30pm

Food & Beverages will be Provided

No Reservations Required

We are pleased to announce that Ms. Meg Garvin M.A., J.D., Executive Director of the Oregon Crime Victim Law Institute at Lewis and Clark University will be bringing a message of encouragement to our community about the work being done on behalf of crime victims. We will also hear from a survivor of human trafficking who will share her courageous story of hope and strength.

www.community-works.org | 541.779.2393